

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, engineers in Washington State are joining other members of the engineering and scientific community throughout our nation in the celebration of the 63rd annual National Engineers Week; and

WHEREAS, engineers utilize empirical scientific and technical data to formulate creative solutions that allow Washingtonians to enjoy cleaner air and water, safer transportation systems, more productive and efficient work environments and an improved quality of life; and

WHEREAS, we are a country and state created largely through enterprise, and it is the skill, ingenuity, and hard work of engineers that transforms creative vision into reality; and

WHEREAS, as Washington continues in this new century and period of economic challenge, we recognize the important role engineers play in the revitalization of our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim February 21-27, 2016 as

Engineers Week

in Washington, and I urge all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Signed this 4th day of February, 2016
